Which songs can I play?

Can I learn my favorite songs quickly and easily?

Motivation

All beginnings are difficult. That's how it is when you want to learn to play the guitar. Often the questions come up: "Are there songs that are easy to learn and that I like, what do I need to know for this song and how difficult is it? With our website we want to make it easier for you to start playing the guitar with a detailed filtering.

Procedure

Our website is designed to allow the user to filter a list of songs according to certain criteria and thus find chord sheets. Special categories are the difficulty of the song and the chords used in the song. This allows the user to filter songs that contain chords they can play or have a reasonable difficulty.

Open questions

Can all chord sheets be subordinated to a uniform difficulty?

Do the data sets provide enough songs/chord sheets?

How do you determine the chords within a song?
